

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject:

PFAC

(Patient and Family Advisory Council)

Haller & Hug, PC

12/13/2018

Edition 1, Volume 4

Welcome PFAC

Patient and Family Advisory Council

On December 13, 2018 Haller & Hug, PC had our PFAC meeting for obtaining input and guidance on how to improve the patient and family experience. This newsletter will serve as a way for us to communicate the outcomes of these meetings. This newsletter can be found here in the office and will be posted on our website @ hallerandhug.com

Advanced Directives

Are legal documents that allow you to spell out your decisions about end-of-life care ahead of time. They give you a way to tell your wishes to family, friends, and health care professionals and to avoid confusion later on.

Why are Advanced Directives Important

- ⊗ Makes your wishes known
- ⊗ Makes it easier on loved ones
- ⊗ Keeps focus on quality of life
- ⊗ Peaceful end of life

What options are available?

- ⊗ Five Wishes
- ⊗ AARP – Michigan
- ⊗ U of M
- ⊗ Lots of other options on the internet

What are we working on?

- ⊗ Building a HRA that is useful and easy to understand
- ⊗ Educating Patients on the changes required to meet Medicare standards
- ⊗ Establishing care protocols for mental health, fall risk, and general health assessments

Our next PFAC meeting will be April 11, 2019 and we welcome any suggestions. Please use the form below to submit a request for a topic of discussion at the next meeting. Please keep in mind you may be asked to come and present your idea to the council for review and discussion.

Agenda Request

(tear off and return to the office)

Presenter:

Phone #:

Short Summary of the Subject:

Issues Related to the Subject: